Golfkentät in english:

Lochgreen GC

Lochgreen is predominately a links course, with one stretch - known as the 'Dovecot Section' - providing holes of a more parkland character, at 6785yds and par 74, Lochgreen is the longest of the three courses. Fullarton is the perfect course for both beginners to the game or for the more accomplished golfer looking to hone their short game.

Dundonald Links www.dundonaldlinks.com

Opened in 2003, Kyle Phillips designed a modern day classic links which has the feel of a course 100 years older and offers challenges and enjoyment in equal measure. Dundonald Links will once again host the Aberdeen Asset Management Ladies Scottish Open in 2016 and has also been selected to host the Scottish Open in 2017. The Course is located at the very heart of Ayrshire's golf coast near Open venues Royal Troon, Prestwick and Turnberry. At the time of purchase, the course was known as Southern Gailes and it has since been renamed 'Dundonald Links' to reflect the history of the site.

Western Gailes www.westerngailes.com

Western Gailes is an excellent test of true links golf and is top of the list for any visitor looking to add one of the worlds top links golf courses to their portfolio. A real test where any change in the strength or direction of the wind, that usually varies between south-westerly and north-westerly off the adjacent Firth of Clyde, provides new challenges that are compounded by the undulating terrain and finely contoured greens cleverly located and set in the folds of the surrounding sand dunes.

Kilmarnock Barassie Links www.kbgc.co.uk

Kilmarnock (Barassie) Golf Club is located on the outskirts of Troon on Scotland's West Coast. Barassie has an extensive history and has been offering golfers a magnificent links golf challenge in Ayrshire for one hundred and twenty-five years. The Club has twenty seven holes with which to test the golfer, complemented by first-rate facilities in the clubhouse and professional's shop. Kilmarnock (Barassie) Golf Club offers everything golfers would expect from a Scottish seaside golf course.
